

AMORE: Outcomes and Future Challenges

Projet AMORE Awareness and Migration: Organisations for binational families Rights Empowerment, Marie Skłodowska-Curie-Actions

Le 20 janvier 2017 de 9h00 à 17h30

Salle Spaak, Institut d'études européennes, Université libre de Bruxelles
Avenue F.D. Roosevelt, 39 - 1050 Bruxelles

Program & inscription : <https://huit.re/amore>

Contact : laura.odasso@ulb.ac.be

International workshop

Morning

- 9.00-9.15am: Introduction (Andrea Rea, Professor and Dean of Faculty of Sciences Sociales, Université libre de Bruxelles. Supervisor of AMORE project)
- 9.15-10.00am: The visibility and invisibility of children in the regulation of family migration
Keynote Speaker (Helena Wray, Associate Professor in Migration Law, University of Exeter UK)
- 10.00-10.45am: Binational couples and associations of defence of family rights in three European cities: strategies to fight after-marriage constraints (Odasso Laura, Marie Curie Fellow Université libre de Bruxelles/LAMES-CNRS, Aix-Marseille Université, France)
- 10.45-11.00am: Coffee break
- 11.00-11.30am: Presentation of two Civil Society groups (followed during AMORE): Plateforme de soutien au groupe Epouses Sans Papiers en Resistance et Amoureuxvospapiers
- 11.30-12.30am: Debate
- 12.30am-2pm: Lunch break for all participants (Hall Institut d'études européennes)

Afternoon

- 2.00 - 3.20 pm: Some actual researches in European countries and beyond
- Transnational marriages in context: marrying across borders as part of gendered strategies of (transnational) social positioning? (Joëlle Moret (Université de Neuchâtel, Suisse))
 - Contesting Postcolonial Hierarchies through Transnational Marriages: an Ethnographic Research at Europe's Borders (Miriam Gutekunst, Institut für Europäische Ethnologie München, Germany)
 - Policy Frames on Spousal Migration in Germany. Regulating Membership, Regulating the Family (Laura Block, EUDO Citizenship, European University Institute, Florence, Italy)
 - The ambiguity of attachment – a case study of Danish family migration (Linda Lund Pedersen, London School of Economics, UK and Centre on Social Movement Studies COSMOS, Italy)
- 3.20-4.00pm: Debate
- 4.00-4.15pm: Coffee break with books and journals session
- 4.15-4.45pm: Historical overview of socio-legal evolutions and their effects on binational and mixed couples (Catherine Delcroix, Professor of Sociology, University of Strasbourg, France)
- 4.45-5.15pm: Final Debate
- 5.15-5.30pm: Conclusion